Update – Recovered Body

A forensic examination of the remains recovered from the Rock River yesterday, 09/24/13, was completed today in Madison. While a definitive cause of death has not yet been determined, at this time foul play is not suspected. However, the investigation is ongoing.

Positive identification of the body has been made and the next of kin have been notified. The individual recovered has been identified as Bobby Bevineau, 55 years old, from Beloit. Bevineau had been reported missing to the Beloit Police Department on September 18, 2013. A press release requesting help from the community in locating Bevineau had been issued on September 20, 2013.

Anyone with information in regards to this incident is encouraged to call the Beloit Police Department, 364-6801, or Beloit Area Crime Stoppers, 362-7463. Individuals may also text information to 274637 then type BACS + your message.
