BELOIT, WISCONSIN – On 11/27/2013 at approximately 1924 hours Beloit Police responded to a reported shots fired incident in the 2100 block of Elmwood Avenue, located on the city's north side.

Responding officers discovered that an armed home invasion had occurred at the residence. Shots had been reportedly fired during the incident. Masked gunmen reportedly entered the home in an apparent robbery attempt. The suspects fled prior to police arrival. Preliminary indications are that this was not a random act of violence. There are no reported injuries to persons that were in the home at the time of the incident. A pit bull that resided in the home was reportedly killed by gunfire during the incident.

Detectives, Evidence Techs, and Drug and Gang Unit investigators are assisting in the investigation.

There is no additional information available for release at this time. END

Pursuant to the directive of the Wisconsin Supreme Court, as found in Supreme Court Rule 20:3:6 Trial Publicity, you are advised that a charge is merely an accusation and that a defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.
