Update – Shooting Summit Park

The deceased victim of the shooting at Summit Park on 08/02/14 has been positively identified and all appropriate notifications have been completed. His name is Jose Carruthers-Paramo, 16 years of age, from Beloit. This is his photo:

The second shooting victim medical condition has not yet allowed him to be interviewed by detectives. His identity will not be released until he can be spoken with.

The third shooting victim that had arrived at Beloit Memorial Hospital later the night of the incident has been identified and interviewed. However due to her age she will not be identified beyond a 14 year old female from Beloit.

The victim that had been reported injured during the incident and treated at Beloit Memorial hospital has been identified and interviewed. His name is Robert Brandon, 20 years of age, from Madison.

The circumstances that led up to the shooting remain unclear. We have interviewed a number of individuals that were present in the park at the time of the incident. We are also asking for the community's assistance in identifying anyone that may have been in the park that night or individuals that have any information regarding the shooting.

End

Anyone with information in regards to this crime is encouraged to call the Beloit Police Department, 364-6801, or Beloit Area Crime Stoppers, 362-7463.
