Death Investigation – 2200 block of Sunshine Lane

On 08/25/14 at approximately 130am. Officers of the Beloit Police Department were dispatched to the lobby of BPD to speak with an individual that wished to turn himself in for a crime. Upon arrival, officers made contact with Peter Hemmy, 30 years of age, from Beloit. Hemmy told the officers his father was dead at their home in the 2200 block of Sunshine Lane. Hemmy implicated himself in the death.

Officers responded to the residence and found Bruce Hemmy, 58 years of age, inside the residence. The Beloit Fire Department responded to assist. The Rock County Coroner's Office responded and pronounced Bruce Hemmy dead at the scene.

The department is investigating the death as a homicide. Department evidence technicians and detectives are working on the investigation at this time.

Peter Hemmy has been arrested for 1st Degree Intentional Homicide. He will be held at the Rock County Jail.

There is no ongoing danger to the community. Preliminary indications are indicative of a domestic related homicide.
