Help Your Local Hero Win Money for Charity! K9 Glory advances to the second round of voting

Lt. Keith Lynn of the Beloit Fire Department is pleased to announce that his partner, K9 Glory, has moved on to the second round of voting in the 2015 American Humane Association Hero Dog Awards. The Hero Dog Awards recognize notable canines such as law enforcement dogs, therapy dogs and pets that do extraordinary things.

While the thought of carrying the title of Hero Dog is exciting, it is the money Glory can win for charity that drives her will to win this competition. Glory is partnered with Project Paws Alive, a nonprofit that provides protective vests and other equipment for four-legged officers.

Protective vests are an unfortunate but much needed part of a service dog's equipment. Glory received her vest (Pictured) through a different charity and knows the importance of making sure all of her fellow service dogs receive the same protection.

Glory, a certified accelerant canine and her handler, Lt. Keith Lynn are based out of the Beloit Fire Department, however, as the only State Farm sponsored team in Wisconsin, they are called to investigate fires throughout the state as well as neighboring states.

Fast Facts about Glory

- Glory promotes public awareness of arson through demonstrations
- Glory promotes fire safety through school and club visits
- Your votes can help her win $7500.00 for Project Paws Alive
 - Second round of voting winner receives $2,5.00 for Project Paws Alive
 - Third round Grand Prize winner receives $5,000 for Project Paws Alive
- Voting is simple and quick.
