CONVERSATIONS WITH THE COMMUNITY

August 16, 2016 - In furtherance of our community policing strategy, the Beloit Police Department invites you to attend our first “Conversations with the Community” event on Wednesday, August 24, 2016, at New Zion Baptist Church, 1905 Mound St., from 5:30pm-8:00pm.

With the support and input from our newly formed Pastoral Advisory Team, which consists of faith-based leaders across Beloit, we have put together a platform geared towards strengthening community relationships, building trust, and educating our community members on a variety of topics. Many of the topics we will discuss have historically led to police-community conflicts that, over time, have diminished the very important relationship between police and the community. We aim to reverse that trend and continue Beloit’s growth as a vibrant and sustainable community.

Our first “conversation” will address traffic stops and include perspectives from the community and police, legal parameters, suggested approaches, and general Q &A. We will also be looking for community volunteers to participate in a traffic stop video, in which these concepts are demonstrated. The video will be placed on our website for the benefit of other community members.

Please join us at this historic first meeting. We look forward to your participation!

Chief Zibolski

Sherrick Anderson, Higher Ground Christian Center
Brenda Atlas, Bethel AME Church
Neil Deupree, Janesville
Rick Hobson, Kingdom Voice Ministry
James M. Ivy, New Zion Church
Kevin Pullam, Emmanuel Baptist

1st Annual Beloit Community Spirit Day

First Annual Beloit Community Spirit Day Taking Place Labor Day Weekend

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Beloit, Wis.—On Sunday, September 4, the 1st Annual Beloit Community Spirit Day will take place from 1PM-4PM on the downtown block of E. Grand Avenue. Beloit Community Spirit Day will be the first of an annual community cookout—free and open to the public!—to celebrate the City of Beloit and its many dedicated individuals, and build a stronger communal spirit amongst neighbors.

Beloit is a community rich in cultural diversity and that is a reason to celebrate. In light of racial and cultural tensions in our community and across the country, we offer an opportunity to bring people together to share a meal and build relationships. While we have a large number of ethnicities represented in Beloit, we often miss opportunities to cross cultural lines and learn from each other. The Beloit Community Spirit Day cookout is an opportunity to do just that.

The cookout will feature grilled foods like hamburgers, brats, veggie burgers, chips, and drinks (non-alcoholic) free of charge. There will also be face painting and a balloon animal stand for kids' enjoyment. Culver's will be serving up their delicious frozen custard with their mascot, Scoopie, on hand!

"As a Beloit, I'm very excited for this event," says City Council President Dave Luebke, a Beloit native. "It gives us a chance to break bread with our neighbors and celebrate pride in this wonderful city."

Luebke worked with a number of city leaders and organizations for this event, including Sud's O'Hanahan's owner Tom Hankins, who came up with the idea for the Community Spirit Day.

"This event is homegrown," says Hankins, born and raised in Beloit. "Its genesis was, when I thought about everything that's going on in the country, deciding to be proactive instead of reactive. We as Beloiters have a lot of warts, but we are proud to continue to persevere in this community together. I wanted to celebrate that homegrown community spirit." Suds O'Hanahan's will serve as a cooking headquarters for the event, and picnic tables provided by Best Events Catering & Rentals will line the downtown block.

A number of community leaders and organizations have expressed their support and helped make the first Beloit Community Spirit Day a reality.

"Community Spirit Day is an opportunity for all of our community to come together and recognize the importance of sending the message loud and clear that we love our home," says Tara Tinder, also a Beloit native, and Executive Director of the Stateline Community Foundation.

Members from local law enforcement, fire departments, schools, city officials, churches, local business, and more will be on hand to help serve food and engage any and all community members. Attendees are encouraged to bring kids and relatives.

1st Annual

Beloit Community Spirit Day

“I want people to have a better understanding of their neighbors,” says Luebke. “And the best way to do that is through food and conversation.”

Everyone is invited to come on out on Sunday, Sept. 4, enjoy a good, free meal and casual conversation, relax downtown with community members, city officials, friends and family, and help make the 1st Annual Beloit Community Spirit Day a success!
