GROUNDBREAKING EVENT AT БЕЛОIT PUBLIC LIBRARY

The Blender Café project will convert the Beloit Public Library Children's Program area into a café, complete with coffee and sandwich sales and a seating area. The public is invited to a groundbreaking ceremony at the Library, 605 Eclipse, on Monday, February 27, 2017 from 12:00—1:00 p.m. Work will be completed by April. The café will be staffed by students in the Beloit Memorial High School's hospitality program.

"AROUND THE CORNER WITH JOHN MCGIVERN"

Join Wisconsin Public Television at a free, community premiere of Around the Corner with John McGivern and see Beloit's people and places on the big screen! From the Beloit International Film Festival website: "Emmy award-winning actor John McGivern explores living, working and playing in Wisconsin's unique communities and took time during the summer of 2016 to visit Beloit. While in Beloit, he interviewed fifteen unique individuals who call Beloit their home." The Beloit episode will be aired on television March 2nd, but we have a special opportunity to see it first! Join your friends and community members on Tuesday, February 28, 2017 at Beloit Memorial High School Auditorium, 1225 4th Street. The doors open at 5:30 p.m., with the program at 6:30 p.m. It's FREE but you do need a ticket! John McGivern will attend and be available to chat after the show. Click here to reserve your tickets!
