Beloit City Council Re-elects Kevin D. Leavy as President for 2018-19
Regina Dunkin Re-elected as Vice President.

April 18, 2018 - Kevin Leavy was re-elected president and Regina Dunkin was re-elected vice president of the Beloit City Council during its re-organization meeting on Tuesday, April 17.

“I look forward to continuing the great work we’ve started in the City of Beloit,” said Leavy. “We’ve made so much progress in improving safety, security, home values and our quality of life, as well as reducing crime throughout the community. The work has only just begun. Together, with the support of the community and city staff, we will achieve outstanding public service as we make the city a place for anyone to proudly call home for a lifetime.”

“We want to continue on the path to making Beloit a place that we can be proud to live in,” Dunkin said. “We will continue to build upon our partnerships with city staff, other government agencies, the business community, non-profit organizations, and all members of the public. As a council we will continue to make the best decisions in the best interests for the residents and the welfare of the City of Beloit.”

Leavy, Dunkin, Beth Jacobsen, and Mark Preuschl were elected to two-year terms in April 2018.
