Navigate Beloit Transit System With Free Class

May 6, 2019 - Learn how safely and confidently navigate the Beloit Transit System during the free Rock County Mobility Management Travel Training Program from 12:30-1:45 p.m. Wednesday, May 15, at Grinnell Hall, 631 Bluff St.

The transit presentation and training will include a brief presentation regarding Beloit public transportation, travel instructions, planning your trip, reading bus schedules, paying fares, purchasing tickets and passes, getting on and off the bus safely, boarding with a mobility device, free training ride, and traveling independently.

There will be a city bus provided to practice boarding with or without a mobility device. The bus will also be available to take participants for a ride after the presentation. Tailored trip planning will also be provided upon request.

This program is open to anyone who is interested. Light refreshments will be available. Please pre-register for this program by calling Grinnell Hall at 608-364-2875.
