GENERAL APPLICATION POLICIES

Your application will be reviewed and a preliminary assessment will be made of your eligibility. Your name will be placed on the waiting list(s) unless it is determined that you are ineligible. If you are determined ineligible you will be notified in writing.

Placement on a waiting list does not indicate that you are eligible for admission. A final determination of eligibility and qualification for preferences will be made when you are selected from the waiting list.

Your name will be placed on the waiting list according to preference(s) and the date and time your complete application is received.

Your Public Housing application will be assigned according to bedroom size for which you qualify. You may also request in writing to be placed on the waiting list for a unit size smaller than designated by the occupancy guidelines as long as the unit is not overcrowded according to standards. However, in this case, you must agree not to request a transfer for two years after admission, unless you have a change in family size or composition.

It is your responsibility to notify us in writing of any change of address, phone number, employment, income or household size. If a notification letter is returned by the post office, you will be removed from the waiting list without further notice.

When you have been selected from the waiting list, you will be notified by mail. You will be required to complete a full application and provide the information necessary to establish eligibility, including suitability, and to determine the amount of rent you will pay. The notice will include a date, time and location for an application interview, including the procedure to reschedule the interview. In all circumstances, if you do not attend a scheduled interview without approval, you will be denied assistance based on failure to supply information needed to determine eligibility.

At any point in the verification process if a negative verification report is received, the application process will be discontinued and you will be notified in writing that your application has been denied. Lying or deliberate omission of relevant information from the application may result in rejection of the application. Otherwise, when all of the verifications are received, eligibility will be determined. You will be notified that you have been accepted or rejected in writing.

The waiting list will be updated as needed to ensure that all applicants and applicant information is current and timely. If any update request we send is returned by the post office or you fail to respond, you will be removed from the waiting list without further notice.

Notice to all Applicants:
Reasonable Accommodations for Applicants with Disabilities or Handicaps

The Beloit Housing Authority (BHA) is a public agency that provides low rent housing to eligible families, elderly families and single people. The BHA is not permitted to discriminate against applicants on the basis of their race, religion, sex, national origin, disability or handicap. In addition, the BHA has a legal obligation to provide “reasonable accommodations” to applicants if they or any family members have a disability or handicap.

A reasonable accommodation is some modification or change the BHA can make to its apartments or procedures that will assist an otherwise eligible applicant with disability to take advantage of the BHA’s programs. Examples of reasonable accommodations would include:

- Making alteration to a BHA unit so it could be used by a family member with a wheelchair;
- Installing strobe type flashing light smoke detectors in a apartment for a family with a hearing impaired member;
- Permitting a family to have a support animal necessary to assist a family member with a disability in a BHA family development where animals are not usually permitted;
- Making large type documents or a reader available to a vision impaired applicant during the application process;
- Making a sign language interpreter available to a hearing impaired applicant during the interview;
- Permitting an outside agency to assist an applicant with a disability to meet the BHA’s applicant screening criteria.

An applicant family that has a member with a disability must still be able to meet essential obligations of tenancy – they must be able to pay rent, to care for their apartment, to report required information to the Beloit Housing Authority, to avoid disturbing their neighbors, etc., but there is no requirement that they be able to do things without assistance.

If you or a member of your family have a disability, you may request a reasonable accommodation at the application process or after admission. This is up to you. If you would prefer not to discuss your situation with the Beloit Housing Authority, that is your right.

Authority: Section 904 of the Stewart B. McKinney Homeless Assistance Amendments Act of 1988, as amended by Section 903 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1992 and Section 3003 of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993. This law is found at 42 U.S.C. 3544.

This law requires that you sign a consent form authorizing: (1) HUD and the Housing Agency/Authority (HA) to request verification of salary and wages from current or previous employers; (2) HUD and the HA to request wage and unemployment compensation claim information from the state agency responsible for keeping that information; (3) HUD to request certain tax return information from the U.S. Social Security Administration and the U.S. Internal Revenue Service. The law also requires independent verification of income information. Therefore, HUD or the HA may request information from financial institutions to verify your eligibility and level of benefits.

Purpose: In signing this consent form, you are authorizing HUD and the above-named HA to request income information from the sources listed on the form. HUD and the HA need this information to verify your household's income, in order to ensure that you are eligible for assisted housing benefits and that these benefits are set at the correct level. HUD and the HA may participate in computer matching programs with these sources in order to verify your eligibility and level of benefits.

Uses of Information to be Obtained: HUD is required to protect the income information it obtains in accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. 552a. The HA is also required to protect the income information it obtains in accordance with any applicable State privacy law. HUD and HA employees may be subject to penalties for unauthorized disclosures or improper uses of the income information that is obtained based on the consent form. Private owners may not request or receive information authorized by this form.

Who Must Sign the Consent Form: Each member of your household who is 18 years of age or older must sign the consent form. Additional signatures must be obtained from new adult members joining the household or whenever members of the household become 18 years of age.

- Section 23 and 19(c) leased housing
- Section 23 Housing Assistance Payments
- HA-owned rental Indian housing

- Section 8 Rental Voucher
- Section 8 Moderate Rehabilitation

Failure to Sign Consent Form: Your failure to sign the consent form may result in the denial of eligibility or termination of assisted housing benefits, or both. Denial of eligibility or termination of benefits is subject to the HA's grievance procedures and Section 8 informal hearing procedures.

Sources of Information To Be Obtained

State Wage Information Collection Agencies. (This consent is limited to wages and unemployment compensation I have received during period(s) within the last 5 years when I have received assisted housing benefits.)

Information may also be obtained directly from: (a) current and former employers concerning salary and wages and (b) financial institutions concerning unearned income (i.e., interest and dividends). I understand that income information obtained from these sources will be used to verify information that I provide in determining eligibility for assisted housing programs and the level of benefits. Therefore, this consent form only authorizes release directly from employers and financial institutions of information regarding any period(s) within the last 5 years when I have received assisted housing benefits.

Consent: I consent to allow HUD or the HA to request and obtain income information from the sources listed on this form for the purpose of verifying my eligibility and level of benefits under HUD's assisted housing programs. I understand that HAs that receive income information under this consent form cannot use it to deny, reduce or terminate assistance without first independently verifying what the amount was, whether I actually had access to the funds and when the funds were received. In addition, I must be given an opportunity to contest those determinations.

This consent form expires 15 months after signed.
