GRINNELL HALL SENIOR CENTER HOSTS ACTIVITIES

April 12, 2023 - Grinnell Hall Senior Center is offering several activities that are open to everyone and all ages.

- Tips & Tricks to Seed Starting: Held on Wednesday, April 19, 1:00pm at Grinnell Hall Senior Center. Led by Master Gardeners and free of charge, we will discuss ideas of proper seed starting soil, making seed tape, reading seed packets, determining seed viability and preparing to transplant. Vegetable, herbs and flowers seeds will be available. Please bring a few recycled smaller containers to plant some seeds. Please call to sign up so we can have supplies available for all.
- What the Tech: Mark Preuschl will assist individuals with smart phones, laptops and tablets. "What the Tech" is held every third Thursday from 1:00-3:30pm and the next date is April 20.
- First Friday Movies: Grinnell Hall offers movies on the first Friday of each month at 10:00am, free of charge. Come and enjoy some entertainment with some friends and light refreshments. Next date is Friday, May 5 at Grinnell Hall Senior Center.

For additional information and to register, call Grinnell Hall at 608-364-2875. Grinnell Hall is located at 631 Bluff St. Beloit, WI 53511.
