Beloit Report

Pedestrian and Bicycle Safety Grant

The Beloit Police Department is participating in a state-funded bicycle and pedestrian safety grant from now through August. The focus of the grant is about educating, saving lives and preventing tragedies.

Please remember to respect bicyclists and pedestrians; bicyclists have the same rights on roadways as motor vehicles, and vehicles should yield to pedestrians at intersections and crosswalks not controlled by traffic signals.

Roundtable Event to Discuss Housing Needs

The Greater Beloit Economic Development Corporation will host a "Realtors Roundtable" to discuss housing market needs and trends in Beloit. The event is open to the public and City Councilors have been invited. It will take place on Wednesday, July 12, 2023 at 9:00 a.m. at the Beloit Public Library.

MadRep Survey

The Madison Region Economic Partnership (MadREP), having facilitated Southcentral Wisconsin's previous five-year regional blueprints for economic growth, is collecting input for a 2024-2028 strategy.

The plan will specifically cover the 8-county Madison Region served by MadREP, consisting of Columbia, Dane, Dodge, Green, Iowa, Jefferson, Rock, and Sauk counties.

MadREP wants the community's perspective and expertise on how it can build a more equitable and successful economic future for Southcentral Wisconsin in its next comprehensive economic development strategy (CEDs). Please take this survey:
