City of Beloit to Grant $250,000 to Local Non-Profits

April 3, 2024 - The Beloit City Council is granting six Beloit non-profit organizations a combined $250,000 to provide youth programming to Beloit residents through the City's American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) funding.

The organizations that will receive funding include:

- Community Action: $80,000
 - $30,000 for the Fresh Start Program
 - $50,00 for the Merrill Community Center
- Welty Environmental Center's 3-Day Field Trips for 5th Graders: $50,000
- City-Wide Youth Softball: $50,000
- Stateline Boys & Girls Club's Operation Great Futures program: $30,000
- Scouts BSA's ScoutReach program: $20,000
- Beloit Boxing Foundation - Rojas Boxing Gym: $20,000

Program descriptions can be located at www.beloitwi.gov/arpa under "Non-Profit Youth Programming".

The funding allocations were approved during the Beloit City Council meeting on Monday, April 1.
