October 10, 2024 - The City of Beloit is celebrating World Migratory Bird Day with a pop up event at Beloit Farmers' Market from 10 am to noon Saturday, October 12.

Stop on by and learn about the importance of birds and insects on our environment. We will have stickers and other activities at the table.

Additionally, City Manager Jerry Gabrielatos will join from 10am to 11:30am Saturday at the market for a satellite City Hall event to help promote resident engagement and take requests for service.
