EMS WEEK and NATIONAL POLICE WEEK, MAY 15—21, 2016

We want to publicly thank our Police and Fire employees for their professionalism, care, and action during often chaotic and challenging situations. They frequently step into very unstable circumstances and we appreciate all they do to keep our citizens safe.

National Police Week memorializes the men and women who have given their lives in service to their communities. In Beloit, our hearts will always remember our heroes Peter Larsen and Frederick Samp.

PUBLIC WORKS WEEK IS MAY 15—21, 2016

The City of Beloit Public Works Department will culminate National Public Works Week, with the theme "Always There," on May 21, 2016 at the Downtown Beloit Farmers' Market. Several pieces of equipment will be featured during the hours of 8:00—1:00 p.m., along with information on all Public Works programs. There will be demonstrations on the new Automation Program in Solid Waste/Recycling, as well as models of the Wastewater Plant and obstacles for the 2nd Annual Dirty Dash for kids to try out.

We thank our Public Works employees for mowing, picking up trash, plowing, cleaning sewers, driving buses, and taking care of a myriad of other tasks that keep our city beautiful!
