Krueger Haskell Golf Course to Open Saturday, April 1, 2017

March 30, 2017 – The City of Beloit’s Parks and Leisure Services Division announces that Krueger Haskell Golf Course, 1611 Hackett Street, will open Saturday, April 1, 2017 for the 2017 season.

The Krueger Haskell Golf Course, an 18 hole, par 70, 6,158 yard course, is celebrating its 90th anniversary. The unique layout, mature trees and rolling terrain make it a challenging and enjoyable course for any golfer. Food and a bar are located inside the Krueger-Haskell Clubhouse, which provides a friendly and relaxing atmosphere for golfers before and after their round of golf.

Golfers are encouraged to purchase a Golf Pass in advance and save on the cost of paying the daily green fees. Golf Passes are valid from April 1 – October 31, 2017.

Golf passes may be purchased at the Golf Course and Leisure Services Office located at 1003 Pleasant Street, Beloit, WI 53511 (NE corner of White Avenue & Pleasant Street/Riverside Drive). Additional information regarding the purchasing of a 2017 Golf Pass may be obtained by calling the Leisure Services Office at (608) 364-2890, or call the Krueger Haskell Golf Course at (608) 362-6503.
